

Sandhills Farm Life School Counseling Department

Meet the School Counselor Rebecca Leslie-Tyson

INTRODUCTION

My name is Rebecca Leslie-Tyson and I am the school counselor at Sandhills Farm Life. On behalf of our staff and myself, we would like to welcome you and your family to our Trojan Family!

All About me:

I have been married 28 years to Steve Tyson and we have three adult children. I am a Moore County native and a product of the Moore County Schools System. I enjoy gardening, reading and learning new things.

I attended St. Andrews Presbyterian College where I earned a BA in Business and Economics. I also graduated from Pembroke State University with a MAEd in Professional School Counseling. I am currently entering my ninth year at Sandhills Farm Life as a school counselor. I also serve as Vice President of the Moore County Chapter of NAMI, the National Alliance of Mental Illness as well as a youth director of my church.

My mission: My mission is to grow healthy humans that are caring and productive members of our society.

Services:

I provide small and whole groups and 1:1 counseling. Currently our school uses the Core Essential Character Education Curriculum. Our school's counseling program provides: social-emotional, academic and career ready skills.

Contact information:

You may contact me anytime by email at rtyson@ncmcs.org or 910-949-2501.
